

HOCL SCHOOL (C.B.S.E.), RASAYANI

[September- November 2013-14]

Students work hard for scoring good marks in exams and get promoted to the next class. But only studies are not important for the overall development of a child. All round development means students must excel but physically and mentally. Exams and results are just a part of knowledge and getting promoted to the next class, but extracurricular activities are equally important because they build a different personality which is requirement in the today's competitive era. Keeping in mind the importance of 'extracurricular activities, the following activities were conducted for the students.
