The sports teachers helped and encouraged students to participate in the 'Annual Sports Day' function of the school. Students participated in various sports activities. The various sports activities include three legged race, relay, shot put, high and long jump, etc. The participating students displayed their ability through these sports. The winner of these games gets a sense of pride.

POWADA COMPETITION

Poetry is a form of art which helps us pour out our innermost yearnings, unvoiced desires and even the brightest of all hopes. HOCL School conducted a poetry recital program named Powada. The composer-cum-singers of the powadas are known as Shahirs. So, at HOCL School, students of class VII as Shahirs presented different Marathi poetries based on the life of Shivaji Maharaj. Poetry, be it light hearted or laced with depth, never fails to leave a mark on our thoughts and being. A whole section of the program was dedicated to poetry laden with insight and deep messages. Poetry is a sublime art which needs to be encouraged.
